

Universal Accessibility & Disability Services (UADS)

I have a disability/special need and want to study at Nelson Mandela University, what do I do?

- Decide and choose a course that suits you and complete a Nelson Mandela University application form.
- On the application form indicate the category of your disability and complete the description section.
- Apply for a NSFAS Disability Bursary.
- Fill out the reasonable accommodation application form and return it to UADS with the correct medical documentation.
- UADS will assist you to access relevant assistive devices.
- UADS will provide orientation and continuous support throughout your study period at the University.

What does Nelson Mandela University's UADS offer?

In an effort to create an integrated and inclusive learning environment for differently-abled students, UADS coordinates the following support services:

Advocacy and Advice

Test and Exam
Concessions

Accessible
Student Housing

Accessible Transport

(NSFAS)
Disability
Bursary

Assistive technological services

Scribes and readers

Braille
transcription

Orientation and mobility training

Universal Accessibility & Disability Services contact details

Main Building, Ground Floor, Room 0009, South Campus

South Campus T: 041 504 2313 / 4756 E: Disability@mandela.ac.za

George campus T: 044 801 5041

Braille Office Ground Floor, Admin Building, North Campus

T: 041 504 2510 E: Braille@mandela.ac.za